Have fun with

LOLO

Colour in the letters that spell Lolo. Then draw your own name. Fill your letters with patterns and colour in.

Make up your own Lolo story by filling in the missing words

One day in ................. Lolo saw a ................. acting ................. town name thing down ................. It was .................ing, and cried, “...............”

describing word action word an animal sound

And then did it ................. times over again!

number

Mama and Gogo always know how Lolo is feeling. Can you tell?

Fill in the words to describe how you think Lolo feels in these pictures